Mr. Holman has been providing Floridians with legal representation in family law issues since 1987.

"You will be your children's father FOREVER! You have the right as a parent to participate in their lives, and they have a right to see you even if you were never married to their mother.

In the past, it was wrongfully assumed that children were always better off with their mother. Today we realize that a father's role in his children's lives is equally as important as the mother's. Florida law no longer gives one gender preference over the other in child custody matters. The primary concern is the best interest of the children.

We have nearly five decades of experience helping fathers establish, retain, and modify their legal rights with regards to their children."Mr. Holman is a divorced father who knows from personal experience what it's like not to have your children with you day in and day out. He can relate to your experience and he will aggressively advocate on your behalf.

"I'm a straight shooter. If your case doesn't have a chance, I'll tell you so. If it's worth the fight, I'll fight for you." — Attorney Stephen T. Holman
